Comment: A very happy birthday Chris. It seems to be the thing to record memorable moments . . . how about Weymouth in 1957/8? with Sonny Terry and Brownie McGhee, also in Weymouth in 1963/4? with Jimmy Cotton and you with a guitar and amp and loads of feedback! One of the most exciting recordings: Climax Rag on "Barber in Berlin". Plus a very exciting gig at the Stables some time ago with the jumpin' Paul Jones. ps where can I get hold of that EP with Jimmy Cotton and Alexis Korner? Had mine nicked!

Comment: Dear Chris, on behalf of the Savoy Jazzmen I wish you a very happy birthday with many more healthy years to come. The Savoy Jazzmen all treasure their memories of concerts together with your fine band. Keep on playing, you still sound as great as ever before and with your new big line-up the music is so much richer. It's your 75th birthday, I hope to enjoy my 75th Chris Baber concert in january 2006.

Keep on swinging,

best wishes,

Frans van de Camp
