Comment: Dear Pat,

yesterday March 9 2005 I had the opportunity to join your concert in Munich.

I was impressed by the longevity of your partnership with Chris. The harmony between Chris and you was noticeable for all your audience - and it provides something very special to work together for half a century.

All my very best to your birthday. Hope you stay healthy and can continue your dedication for the music as long as you like to.

Comment: Congratulations on your 75th and for being in the longest partnership in jazz - ever! Your versatility in playing the variety of styles from New Orleans cornet to the funky brass of the 60s and 70s bands, and still playing with such strength and character today is much admired and appreciated. I hope that you and Chris will be playing together for many more years to come.

Comment: Your instantly recognisable trumpet has ensured my 'fan'ship for the last fifty years. From the delicate to punchy rock, in my opinion you have no equal. For me, peak performance must be your solo in 'Gotta Travel On' (Barber in Berlin). Reaches right into the soul.

You deserve a very happy 75th for all the pleasure you have given.

Comment: Best Wishes on your forthcoming birthday Pat. We spoke previously when you played Oldham. When you came to play with the Merseysippi Jazz Band some time later, you may recall I pointed out that few musicians could claim to have played up North and started a riot! Have a great birthday and long may you continue to entertain us with your music.

Comment: Happy Birthday Pat for the 18th. I have been a fan of the band for 45 years although I have only managed two live performances, once here in Christchurch in 2000 and at the 100 Club in London in the early 1970's. I hope to catch another live performance at some time in the future.

Comment: Hi Pat,

Happy 75th. I have your photo as wallpaper on my computer. Your playing has brought me pleasure since age 15 when I heard you play Blue Turning Grey on the 1960 Copenhagen LP.

Keep up the good work and best regards for the future, Mike Hegarty
