Dear Chris. Sorry I missed the actual day of your 90th Birthday. But many congratulations and best wishes. Your music and attending your concerts have given me a lot of pleasure over the years, since I was 14 years old when I first heard Whistling Rufus - now over 50 years ago. Very best wishes.

Sorry to be late, but every good wish for many more years. I first heard your band and the skiffle groups in London in the years 1956 to 1959. Dancing (fast) to 'Sing On' is a wonderful memory. I have since enjoyed live concerts in many cities, including in my home base Adelaide, and in more recent years in Guildford, Great Malvern and Middlesbrough. Thank you for great music.

Chris,
sorry for being late for your birthday -
I was listening to all the ol CDs while cleaning up the basement, an after finishing my ICE CREAM (Duesseldorf, August 1980), I had to go up and check ...

and yes, Chris Barber just celebrated his 90th birthday!

Congratulations, many happy returns and stay healthy!

Congratulations Chris! You were the first jazz artist I ever saw live. Later I was lucky enough to see you at Fairfield Hall with Sonny Boy Williamson the night before my French O level exam, a life-changing experience. Have had many wonderful evenings since then, including the great Big Band and the Skiffle show with Van Morrison. Thank you!!!!

Dear Chris,
Happy Birthday! I hope you're keeping safe and well in these troubled times.
My dad had your vinyl record 'Barber's Best'
I loved it when I was 8 years old.
I'm now nearly 65. Still love it, and many albums since, all now upgraded to CD, and also streaming on my Apple HomePod as I type this.
I took my Dad (now sadly deceased) to see you in concert many times.
Thank you so much for the pleasure your music has given us over the years.
And still is giving me pleasure in this lockdown, despite my age, I'm dancing like a demon!!
Syncopated lady!!
Love and best wishes, Bless you xxx

Dear Chris Barber, a great legend of world traditional jazz, wish you a happy 90th birthday with all the best, health, optimism and joy of jazz. I've been your huge fan since the age of 60, listening to your fantastic music, collecting music carriers, autographs from dixieland musicians and bands. When I hear your music, I feel blissful. Dear Chris, stay with us for a long time. Listening to traditional jazz, Dixieland, NOLA jazz is a medicine for the soul. This music is going to be preserved for the future generation! Dear Chris,
Wishing you a very happy, and safe, 90th Birthday.
I first saw you and your Band in 1954, at the open air concert theatre in the Battersea Pleasure Gardens.
Many further enjoyable occasions followed, and we have a small record collection.
Particularly impressive was your insistence, always, on going through necessary sound checks - where lesser bands were not so meticulous.
Please have a long, happy, and well deserved retirement from the stage.

Thankyou for all your music,I have very much enjoyed it since first seeing you at Birmingham Town Hall in the 50's. The last time I had the privilege of seeing you was in 2018 at the Hawth, Crawley with an appreciative 'older' audience. I last saw the band shortly after your fall at the Pavilion, Worthing and am pleased that the band plays on.
Your willingness to chat with members of the audience in intervals was always much appreciated.

Mr. Barber, happy 90th birthday from NL. I watched you playing many times, first time in Eindhoven, last time in Breda. Always a pleasure. You, your band and your music is a big part of my life. Even while writing this message I'm listening to one of your CD's on Spotify. Have a great day and stay safe in this complicated time. Sincerely, Hans Biezemans, Roosendaal, NL.

Mr Barber. I hope you have a fabulous 90 th birthday ! I bought my first LP Chris Barber in East Berlin in 1959 when I was 16. I saw the band for the first time also in 1959 at the Gaumont Theatre Taunton. I was lucky enough to see the band many times before I emigrated to Canada in 1967. I was thrilled to see and talk to you at the Vancouver Jazz Festival in 1999. All the best Adrian Happy Birthday, Chris Barber. My dad is a fan of yours and saw you in the 50s. Thirty years later, you did a show at Chertsey Hall, and I was able to take him there to see you again ????. Have a Happy 90th Birthday and keep playing.

Happy Birthday Chris.
Your early days with Lonnie Donegan started me off. "Elite Syncopations" was the recording which got me really hooked.
Thank you for all the subsequent years of jazz as only you could arrange and present.
