Comment: Happy birthday Chris. I had the pleasure of seeing you at my first ever jazz concert at the Gaumont Theatre Taunton in 1959 - and my last here at the Vancouver Jazz festival recently. Always the gentleman. Keep on blowing !!

Comment: As exciting as ever and a joy to hear you at Newbury. The band is just incredible and Bob's arrangements are superb. Sorry you don't do 'Sweetness' any more as that is just so lovely. When you have a free Tuesday night we are still at the Fox and Hounds Theale. 0118 9332211

Comment: Hi there, Chris! First heard you in 1970, at the age of 7, when I found a 78 of High Society and Papa De Da Da in an old radiogram "retired" to my bedroom. Almost the first "non classical" music I listened to - been a big fan ever since! Hope the last quarter of your first century goes well!

All the best

Tony

Comment: I have been listening to your band since I discovered Jazz as a 13 year old in 1956. I am still exited when I think back to the good old days in German and French Jazz clubs and concerts where I listened to tunes of Chris Barber and other great artist. Your great music made me a Jazz fan for life. Happy Birthday!

Comment: Happy Birthday Mr.Barber and along with Pat let's have another 75 of them at least. The Knighthoods for both of you are long overdue. Not only have you brought so much pleasure to the universe you continue inspirationally re-inventing the wheel - it's just fantastic. We'd also like to mention a favourite, but minute part of your vast musical contribution - that wonderful, but too short "sledgehammer" trombone solo on "Magnolia's Wedding Day" always works for us! Thank you so very much!
