Comment: Thanks for the years of pleasure you have given us
I am one of the "grey hair" groupies who have followed you since the days of Shakespear, Woolwich and White Hart, Bromley.
Keep playing!

Comment: Just called in after watching, for the umpteenth time, Marquee 25th Anniversary concert with Dr John. So good to see you on the double bass.
Great stuff - you don't look a day older!
Hope to see you very soon. Many, many Happy Returns
Play on man - we luv yer.

Comment: Dear Chris,

Happy happy Birthday. Thanks to you I started playing trombone when I was 13 years old. Last sunday I turned 35 and still enjoy playing trombone. Not as good as you but... Love the solo on Creole love Call.

Comment: Dear Chris,

Wishing you a Happy Birthday.

Would like to thank you for all the hours of wonderful music you have given us.

Been a fan since my youth in Holland during the fifties and your 1956 Festival Hall Concert record went all over the world with me during my years in the merchant navy.

I now can only enjoy you and your band during holidays in Europe and hope to see you in Hereford during July, looking forward to it.

All the best from "Down Under"

Rolf Kramer.
