Comment: Hi Pat,

Sorry to have missed your actual birthday, but nevertheless, best wishes and may you never hang up your horn.

I will see you in Enkhuizen this year, i am playing there with Martin Bennett's Old Green River band.

looking forward to it and to buying you a beer.

Comment: Hello Pat

How's it feel to be 75? You certainly don't look it. Thanks for all the years of great jazz and the enjoyment I've had from your many concerts over forty six years. Do you remember New Years eve at The Grove Sport Centre, Newark? What a dance that was.I forget the year 1970ish.

Hope you are in the best of health and hope to see you soon in Nottingham.

All best wishes

Peter

Comment: Congratulations Pat. By coincidence my late father's birthday was March 18th. We first saw you play at the RFH in 1954 and both stayed fans thereafter. Father later said you got to look more like Tommy Cooper every day - a compliment coming from the No 1 Cooper fan.

Comment: Hearty congratulations to you Pat. By coincidence my late father's birthday was March 18th and he was a great jazz fan. We were both present at the RFH concert in 1954 and continued to enjoy the band from then onward. Unfortunately my dad died in 1998 a week short of his eighty fifth birthday and is still missed very much by the family. The last time he saw you play he remarked on how much you had grown to resemble

Tommy Cooper - I think that can be taken as a compliment from the no 1 Cooper fa
